

AI HIJRI 1438- NEW YEAR 2016 HOLIDAY

Dear Valued Parent,

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds, and blessings and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad!

Muharram is a blessed and important month. Muharram is so called because it is a sacred (Muharram) month. It is the first month of the Hijri calendar and is one of the four sacred months. According to the authentic traditions, these four months are Dhul-Qa'dah, Dhul-Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab. It is mustahabb to fast on both the ninth and tenth days of Muharram, because the Prophet fasted on the tenth, and intended to fast on the ninth.

The Hijri Calendar, which is based purely on lunar cycles, was first introduced in 638 C.E. by the close companion of the Prophet (PBUH) and the second Caliph, `Umar ibn Al-KHattab (RA) (592-644 C.E.). He, along with his advisors, finally agreed that the most appropriate reference point for the Islamic calendar was the Hijrah*. The actual starting date for the Calendar was chosen (on the basis of purely lunar years, counting backwards) to be the first day of the first month (1 Muharram) of the year of the Hijrah.

For religious reasons, the beginning of a Hijri month is marked not by the start of a new moon, but by a physical (i.e., an actual human) sighting of the crescent moon at a given locale.

[*The Hijrah, which chronicles the migration of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) from Makkah to Madinah in September 622 C.E., is the central historical event of early Islam.]
