Valediction 2020, indeed, was a celebration for those who worked hard to reach this goal, a farewell to bid goodbyes to those friends who were part of life for varying years in the count and standing at the crossroads of life, a new beginning towards the ambitious and rewarding goals. The Valediction ceremony commenced with the solemn procession lead by the Principal Mr. Mohammad Gaffar, Vice Principal Mrs. Humeira Sharief, the distinguished guests of the day, Heads of various Academic Departments and teachers, followed by the graduating batch 2019-20 in the gracious presence of parents and well-wishers on 23rd January, 2020. It was then followed by invoking the blessings of the Almighty with the prayer. Indian national anthem and UAE national anthem followed the next.

The Vice Principal, Mrs. Humeira Sharief formally welcomed all the guests of the day and the parents to this ceremonial function.

The eminent guest, Dr. Sasi Stephen, Research Scientist and a teacher at Khalifa University, Abu Dhabi, hit upon the need for self-discipline and hard work as 'mantras', to achieve success. The essence of the day was the conferment of the degrees. Students, at the same time both excited and nostalgic received their certificates in the presence of their beloved parents, teachers and friends.

Soon after that the guests released a budding poet Ms. Caron Chacko's collection of poetry, "Seraphim". Mr. John D mello, HOD of English Department presented the review of the book.

The Principal and the Vice Principal handed the lighted candles to students, symbolic of their responsibility to light up the world for better tomorrows, while the AJChoir sang melodious rendition. Keeping up with the long standing tradition of AJ, after the conferment of the degrees and lighting of the candles, students who had outshone others were adjudged as winners and were awarded with certificates and mementos.

The ceremony was concluded with the vote of thanks by Mr. John D mello, HOD of English Department. As the moon lit up the chilly wintry night to a nostalgic loom, the function drew to it close, with the hope that the young, energetic, dynamic, youngsters would be a light in darkness, warmth to the cold hearted and a source of inspiration and an example to be followed.

ENGLISH LITERARY MONTH 2020

January 2020 was once again set aside for English Department. The teachers of the English Department guided the students to fill the display Boards with various works of the students. Each board displayed the works on different themes like UAE Writer's Lane, Shakespearean Creative Challenge, Story Corner, Poetry Board, day today events and so on. It was very informative.

Throughout the month the department planned various classroom and break time activities in which the students participated enthusiastically. The department gave away various prizes to the winners of several activities on daily basis.

LITERARY FEST 2020

In order to bring out the hidden talents the English Department organized various competitions like Quiz, Elocution, Story Telling and Poetry Recitation. In the preliminary rounds all the students of grade 7 to 9 and 11 mandatorily participated in the competitions. The finale of all these competitions was held from 7.30 am to 1.40 pm on 30th January, 2020. All the events were well organized by the department teachers. The conduct of the events was so good that it was well appreciated by all those who witnessed it.

WORLD EDUCATIONAL EVENTS- MUN TRAINING & SESSION

ABUDHABI INDIAN SCHOOL ,AL WATHBA

Great Opportunities is a rarity but such openings should never be missed and this happened recently when three of us AJ-ites - Soumya Ray, Jinit Sadhwani and Ishaa Najiba had the chance to participate in the first ever WEE IA - MUN 2019. The students were invited to participate in a 4 day MUN training + Session event in Abu Dhabi Indian School Al Wathba. The committee was chaired by MUN professional, G.K Pathak. The Social Science Department of Al Ain juniors school took the lead in the event.

The first 2 days were for training, we had an ice breaker through which we were introduced to each other and also got to know of the new committee agendas and new parliamentary procedures. Using their exemplary diplomatic skills the delegates formed alliances and also made a list of the countries to target and oppose. The students found these training sessions to be extremely helpful as they got to know of many new rules, procedures and about the countries participating in the event.

The 3rd and 4th days of the WEE IA-MUN were formal sessions. We discussed and deliberated on various issues based on the training we received during the previous two days. We had a speaker's list on both the days where the delegates represented the stance of their nation on cultural practices and environmental degradation, the agenda for the UNEP committee for the conference. We also had several moderated caucuses over sub agendas such as failure of countries to stop forest fires, the SDGs, failure of countries to sign and ratify the Paris Agreement and the rise of irresponsible consumerism and its ill effects on the environment. We also had several unmoderated caucuses during which we made alliances and blocs and gained support for our motions which helped us develop our bargaining skills. We also sponsored a resolution and presented it in front of the committee, offering possible solutions to these world problems. The conference ended with an award distribution ceremony to felicitate the delegates who had shown exemplary performance. We also won several laurels in this session . Overall, it was a very enlightening experience and we gained a lot of knowledge from it. We hope to implement our learning in our own committees and become better chairs for our delegates in the AJMUN.

Jinit Sadhwani and Ishaa Najiba were adjudged as the Best Delegates whereas Soumaya Ray won the Outstanding Delegates award.
