"Unlocking the Power of Words: Happy English Month!"

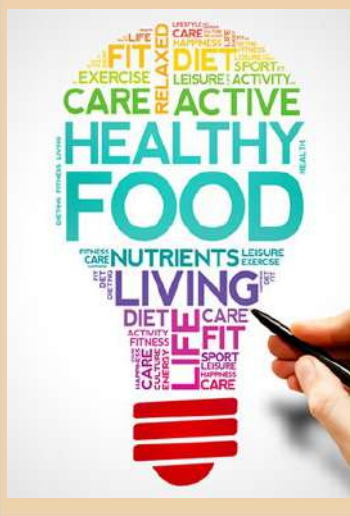

The Month of English at Al Ain Juniors School -Primary sparked a wave of creativity among young learners. It was celebrated in May with a variety of competitions and activities aimed at emphasizing the significance of English as a global language. Organized by the Al Ain Juniors School English department, the celebration saw enthusiastic participation from both teachers and students.

Students were provided with numerous opportunities to showcase their talents in English communication and literature. Key events included the Hats Parade, Puppet Show, Create Your Own Advertisement, Acrostic Poem Writing Competition, Book Review Competition, Designing Book Cover Page Competition, Tongue Twister Challenge, Show and Tell, and Snapshot Splashboard Competition.

Throughout May, Al Ain Juniors took part in a range of thrilling and vibrant activities, with students enthusiastically joining each event. The Month of English wrapped up with a grand closing ceremony, celebrating all participants for their enthusiasm and active engagement in the activities.

Conclusion

At Al Ain Juniors School - Primary, the month of May buzzed with excitement and learning. The English Month showcased our students' talents and enthusiasm for language and literature, while the launch of the ERGA Program emphasized the importance of health and fitness. As we wrap up these enriching experiences, we eagerly anticipate the upcoming ICT and Entrepreneurship Month, where our students will continue to shine brightly and explore new horizons.
