

Date: 28th September, 2017

Dear Parent,

Kindergarten takes the pleasure to announce the celebration of 'Red Day' on 1st October, 2017. Red is the warmest of all colors. It symbolizes enthusiasm, love and vitality. Red also indicates the quality of risk -taking and being courageous. This day will be great fun as it will be designed to help the young minds identify, think and talk about how the color RED influences their lives.

Our Objective: To enhance the knowledge of Primary colour RED

To inculcate the quality of sharing with love and being risk-takers

So to join in this celebration kindly send your child dressed in red and let them get along any prop which is red (fruits, toys, accessories, etc...) to make this event successful.

Thanking you.

Team – KG

Date: 28th September, 2017

Dear Parent,

Kindergarten takes the pleasure to announce the celebration of 'Red Day' on 1st October, 2017. Red is the warmest of all colors. It symbolizes enthusiasm, love and vitality. Red also indicates the quality of risk -taking and being courageous. This day will be great fun as it will be designed to help the young minds identify, think and talk about how the color RED influences their lives.

Our Objective: To enhance the knowledge of Primary colour RED

To inculcate the quality of sharing with love.

So to join in this celebration kindly send your child dressed in red and let them get along any prop which is red (fruits, toys, accessories, etc...) to make this event successful.

Thanking you.

Team – KG

Date: 28th September, 2017

Dear Parent,

Kindergarten takes the pleasure to announce the celebration of 'Red Day' on 1st October, 2017. Red is the warmest of all colors. It symbolizes enthusiasm, love and vitality. Red also indicates the quality of risk -taking and being courageous. This day will be great fun as it will be designed to help the young minds identify, think and talk about how the color RED influences their lives.

Our Objective: To enhance the knowledge of Primary colour RED

To inculcate the quality of sharing with love and being risk-takers

So to join in this celebration kindly send your child dressed in red and let them get along any prop which is red (fruits, toys, accessories, etc...) to make this event successful.

Thanking you.

Team – KG

Date: 28th September, 2017

Dear Parent,

Kindergarten takes the pleasure to announce the celebration of 'Red Day' on 1st October, 2017. Red is the warmest of all colors. It symbolizes enthusiasm, love and vitality. Red also indicates the quality of risk -taking and being courageous. This day will be great fun as it will be designed to help the young minds identify, think and talk about how the color RED influences their lives.

Our Objective: To enhance the knowledge of Primary colour RED

To inculcate the quality of sharing with love.

So to join in this celebration kindly send your child dressed in red and let them get along any prop which is red (fruits, toys, accessories, etc...) to make this event successful.

Thanking you.

Team - KG