NARRATIVE REPORT ON ENGLISH COMPETITION FOR GRADE 7

The English Month Competition for Grade 7 held last January 30, 2021 at 10:00 am to 1:30 pm, was a successful and fruitful one. This event was spearheaded by our brilliant yet so humble Head of the Department, Ms. Kitty Christina Isaac.

The competition started with a short program organized by Ms. Maryjane C. Yacapin, the class teacher of Grade 7D and the English subject teacher of Grade 7 ABDEF. The program was managed by three active and diligent students, who served as the Masters of Ceremony during the program namely, Layan Tliti, Tabarak Mohamed and Tayyiba Gattoo, all from Grade 7 classes.

There were 2 contested events; Poem Recitation and "What is your Good Name?" Ms. Mary, explained the mechanics of each category and Ms. Erika Abad Jaen, English teacher and a Grade 8 class teacher, was the judge for the contested events. Ms. Kitty, our HOD, was the Overall Chairman. Mr. Salako, another excellent English teacher extended his helping hand in the event.

Participants in the competition were able to showcase their skills in memorization, enunciation, fluency and correct pronunciation of words in the Poem Recitation. On the other hand, participants also were able to enhance and increase their vocabulary in the "What is your good name?" category. It was such a challenging one for the participants because they were able to fight their fears and were able to answer questions within a stipulated time given.

Winners for each category were announced after the event. Certificates were awarded to the winners so as to motivate them to participate again and join other related activities.

Before we ended the event, we acknowledged everyone who in one way or another has contributed to the success of the event, most of all our God, who made all things good and beautiful.

Lastly, we did not end the event without listening to the words of wisdom that comes from the mother of the department, Ms. Kitty Christina Isaac, who served as God's instrument for these children to come out of their "shell" and for us, her subordinates, to be always on the right track wherever we are.

Preparation

The students were informed about the English month, the competitions and activities that were going to take place as well as the tentative date. The activity was very well-welcomed by all students, especially the students from sections B and C.

For the poem recitation competition, the students had 5 options:

The Creature in the Classroom by Jack Prelutsky

I Made a Noise This Morning by Jack Prelutsky

Be Glad Your Nose is on Your Face by Jack Prelutsky

My Teacher Sees Through Me by Bruce Lansky

Get Out of Bed by Diane Z. Shore

For the JAM or "Just a Minute" competition, the students had one session of practice in class in which they became familiar with the instructions and also gained self-confidence.

The participants were the following:

For the writing competition, all students were encouraged to participate.

The students Lindsay Limotan (9D), Noorhan Ali (9C) and Ismath Tara (9C) hosted the event.

EVENT

The meeting started at 9:50 AM on January 16th, 2021. In order to have these meetings, we, as department, created a new team on MS Teams. After starting the meeting, we took attendance and shared the link with the other channels: 9A, 9B, 9C and 9D, so they could also see their classmates performing.

The event went well. The student Samar Sami (9C) recited the Holy Quran, then we played the UAE National Anthem. Ms. Kitty introduced the event by thanking the students for taking part and motivating them to continue enhancing their communicative skills in English.

I must say that it was a fun activity, the students as well as the teacher enjoyed it. After performing, there was a 10-minute break for the judge, Ms. Mary Jane, to decide the winners.

There was a post shared right after the event in each channel announcing the winners:

After announcing the winners, the students asked us to participate in a JAM competition. Then, they voted anonymously for the best speaker.

All the participants and winners received a certificate via private message for taking part in the competitions of the Month of English.

The Shakespearean challenge was personally a wonderful event to experience. It was quite different from the events usually held as it was online due to the coronavirus pandemic. The hosts gave their speeches and wished us luck for the competition before we started. All the different categories were sent into their separate breakout rooms along with the judges for each of the groups. Each and every individual who participated did a remarkable job. All of their incredible performances were a pleasure to watch. We were given a short break after the breathtaking poems and write-ups. I got to interact with some of the wonderful contestants personally. I was definitely nervous as it was time for the winner announcement. Being a part of this competition and going this far to reach the final round was already super exciting because I participated for the experience. I was over the moon when they announced that I won 3rd place, I never really expected winning the competition. I loved being a part of this event. In fact I genuinely hope that I get to experience this amazing event again.
