TEACHERS DAY

The morning began with a gathering of students and staff in a respectful and admiring atmosphere for our teachers. Micaila Marie and Zena Ehab hosted an emotional homage, with Tamjeed Sharif offering the English prayer and Abdullah Yaseen launching the celebration with the Arabic prayer. Mohammed Sam expressed gratitude for the teachers' role in shaping children's lives and futures.

The student council organized a crowning event where President Muhammad Bin and Elfa Elbushra presented the crowns where the most charismatic, amiable, laid-back, athletic, best dressed, kindest, and most punctual teachers were awarded. The choir from the school entertained the instructors with a performance of Demi Lovato's 'Gift of a Friend'. The event also featured a skit where students dressed up as teachers, providing an entertaining and lively performance. The women teachers played musical chairs, while the male teachers participated in tug-of-war. The seventh and eighth graders were ordered back upstairs. A football game was played between AJB Secondary Teachers and AJB Seniors, with a 2-1 result, further highlighting the incredible achievements of the teachers.

Teacher's Day celebrations were filled with gratitude and joy, highlighting the unwavering dedication of teachers. Students and staff connected, honoring their impact on lives. A spirit of unity was created, preparing for another year of learning and growth.

GREEN OLYMPIAD

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

The FA2 exams brought in mixed reactions from students. Many aimed for an 'academic comeback', and some strived to further excel with their current learning progress. As the Pre-Mock Examinations and the End of Term Examinations are just around the corner, the students of Al Ain Juniors School are determined to give it their best and to make their comeback stories real. We wish all the students the best of luck in reaching their full potential through these exams. Keep pushing forward!

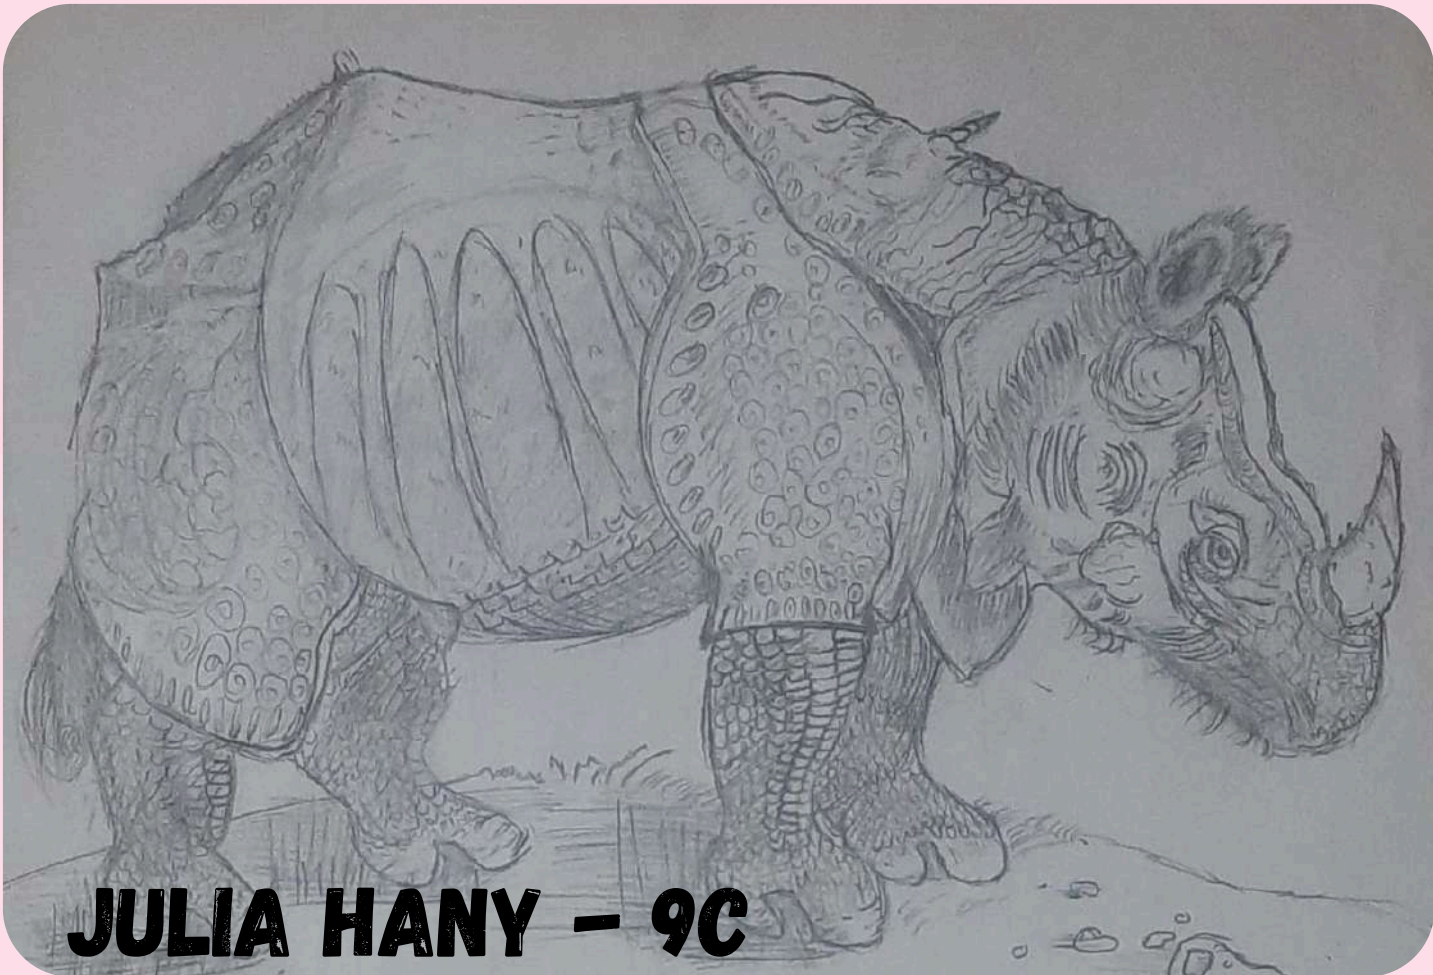

NAJAH TRIP

On November 27, the Al-Ain Junior School's seniors attended the Najah university fair held at the Adnec enter, Abu Dhabi. Students visited several university booths to learn more about the majors and courses they wanted to pursue as well as to look into other courses the university offered. Additionally, the students had the opportunity to learn more about their possible future academic routes and have a conversation with university representatives. They were able to obtain insightful information and choose their higher education with knowledge. All things considered, the education fair gave students a great chance to begin organizing their academic futures and explore different possibilities for higher education.

A SYMPHONY OF TONGUES

BY: SASWATH 7A

In whispers soft and grand
Languages weave across the land
From ancient texts to modern prose
Language is the speech that grows
Each tongue with a melody that's unique
In every dialect we speak
From the grace of Arabian poets
To the intricate lace of Mandarin
In Tamil where words are adequate to the river's flow
To Malayalam where words glow
In Hindi the tales of past unfold
To Arabic where there is warmth in stories told
Through languages we share dreams
Our fear, Our dreams and our silent screams
A bridge for heart to heart by our delightful poets
And a beautiful sound to cherish.
So, let us enjoy each and every word.
Because each word is a work of art
For in this symphony of tongues
Humanity is sung.
