SCHOOL:	Al Ain Juniors School

Policy Contact: Counsellor	Issue Date: June 2024
School: Al Ain Juniors School	Next Revision Date: June 2025
Reference No: AJ-GCD-04	Version No: 4

I. Policy Statement

- Al Ain Juniors School seeks to ensure that all its students receive full-time and appropriate education which will enable them to achieve their potential. AJS will provide a welcoming and safe environment, where all members of the school community can be socially included and be active members of the school. All AJS staff will work with students and their families to ensure each student attend school regularly, punctually and succeeds.
- AJS will establish a range of effective strategies to acknowledge the efforts of students to improve their attendance and punctuality and to support and challenge those students who resent ongoing concerns.
- To meet these objectives AJS will establish an effective and efficient system of communication with students, parents, care takers and appropriate agencies to provide support and advice.

II. Policy Aim

- To encourage and support students to attend school regularly and punctually.

III. PRINCIPLES

- At the heart of the Attendance Policy is AJS' determination and dedication to provide a high standard of education for all its students, so that student attainment and development is fulfilled and we ensure 'Success for All'.
- An electronic registration system is used to generate live data which enables staff to take speedy and appropriate action.
- The pastoral support system has an important role to play in improving attendance, punctuality, and attainment. All staff work together to provide a stimulating environment where students are given every opportunity to reach their potential.
- The teaching staff, HODs, Subject Coordinators, School Counsellor, Vice Principal, and Student Affairs Coordinator all have key roles in promoting good attendance and punctuality at school and to lessons.
- We ensure that parents/care takers are regularly informed about attendance and punctuality if there is cause for concern and to praise.
- To encourage improving attendance and to maintain high standards we set attendance targets for all students. All students are eligible for rewards for both high and improving attendance. Improving attendance is closely linked with the AJS' drive to improve attainment so all students can maximize their potential.

IV. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The AJS will ensure:

- That students are registered accurately and efficiently.
- That parents are contacted when reasons for absence are unknown or unauthorized. That student attendance and punctuality is monitored regularly.
- That school attendance, absence and unauthorized absence statistics are maintained and reported to all students, staff, parents and the ADEK.
- That students are encouraged to attend school regularly.

Parents/Guardians:

- Making every effort to ensure that their child attends school every day and arrives on time.(7:25 a.m.)
- Informing the school on the first day of an absence if their child is unable to attend school.
- Providing the school with a valid reason for all absences.
- Scheduling family vacations to coincide with scheduled school breaks.
- Making all appointments outside of school time e.g. dentist / doctor. In the event of this not being possible, parents are asked to inform the school of the appointment prior to the appointment date. The school may request to see an appointment card.
- Informing a member of staff (usually Class Teacher) of any reason or problem that may hinder their child from attending school.
- Working with the school to resolve issues where possible and ensure good attendance and punctuality.
- Contacting school, and apply for the leave only through Zenda app.
- Informing the school immediately in the event of the student contracting an illness or suffering an injury which would make o an absence of 3 days or more likely, and o subsequently keep the school informed of the student's progress.

Students:

- Are expected to attend school regularly and attend all lessons, punctually and to inform school staff if there is a problem that may lead to absence.
- Arrive on time at school and to all lessons.
- Be fully involved in all lessons. No classes should be missed

V. ATTENDANCE PROCEDURES

Electronic Registration

- Every member of staff i.e. Class teacher at AJS has login access to the NXQ attendance module. This is used for morning registration.
- Morning registration is from 7:30 am, until 7:45 a.m.
- The register is taken immediately the class is settled and if a student arrives after this, they will be marked late. The code L is used for lateness to lessons and during registration and the number of minutes late is recorded.
- Any entry or changes in NXQ after 8 am must be immediately reported by the class teacher to the counsellors.
- Counsellors must report the same to the Student Affairs team immediately.

❖ Study leave

- Following the conclusion of the mock exam and the pre-board exams, students are granted a 10-day study leave to undertake individual preparations for the upcoming board examinations from their respective homes.
- During this designated period, despite the absence of physical presence within the school premises, students are accorded full attendance status. This implies that, regardless of their location at home, students are considered present for all academic purposes, emphasizing the importance of their dedicated efforts and focused preparation for the upcoming board examinations.

❖ Absence

- School uses eSis to report 'Truancy'. This is an electronic system that will send text messages to parents on the day of absence
- When students are absent, the parents should notify it through Zenda app.
- If a student returns without a letter explaining the absence, a letter will be sent home on the same day. In addition, when a student has been absent for three successive days without an explanation, the class teacher should ask the student affairs team to contact home.
- Should the student's attendance continue to be a concern (long absentee) then the matter will be pursued by Student Affairs Team and proper action is to be initiated.

❖ Records

- All attendance records are held on NXQ and ADEK portal and updated on a daily basis. Weekly summaries of attendance, absence, and unauthorized absence to be published by class teachers. The punctuality and unexplained absences records are available on NXQ mobile app.

❖ Truancy Checks

Throughout the day the respective subject teachers/school counselor/floor supervisor checks for post registration truancy. Parents of students truanting during the day are contacted by telephone or in writing so that immediate action may be taken. If there is no satisfactory reason for the truancy then the student will be referred to the school counselor to recommend follow up action and support.

❖ Rewards for Improved and 100% Attendance

The Class teacher and the School Counselor are responsible for monitoring and rewarding improved and 100% attendance. This is done in the following ways:

- 100% attendance certificates
- Improved attendance certificates
- Weekly Certificate for the 'Class of the Week' for best attendance

❖ PUNCTUALITY

- Lateness to school and to lessons must be acted upon immediately and parents made fully aware of the school's expectations regarding punctuality shared responsibility of the HODs, Class teacher, and Student affairs coordinator.
- Students who arrive for school after 8.00am must report to Welfare and Student Services and sign in with the Attendance Officer.
- Punctuality is recorded on the NXQ database system and daily records of late students will be sent to Vice Principal for action.
