May 2025

AJI PRIMARY

ISSUE: 2

At AJI, we are committed to nurturing our students' creative and analytical skills. The month of May was devoted to celebrating the richness of the English language and literature. A variety of contests and events were held with the aim of fostering a genuine appreciation, understanding, and love for literary works. These engaging activities undoubtedly ignited excitement among the students, helping them develop and enhance techniques that fuel

Grade 1 - Activities & Competitions

Alphabet Architects – Word Building Competition

As part of our English Thematic Month, students participated in the Alphabet Architects – Word Building Competition.

Using building blocks and letter clues, children constructed impressive word pyramids by decoding hints and carefully adding letters step by step. The activity sparked excitement, strengthened spelling and vocabulary skills, and allowed students to think critically while having fun. It was a wonderful display of wordplay, logic, and creativity!

SYNTAX STARS

SENTENCE BUILDING COMPETITION

A collaborative sentence-building challenge that focused on improving sentence structure and punctuation. They worked in teams to create clear, well-formed sentences using vocabulary cards.

the Difference

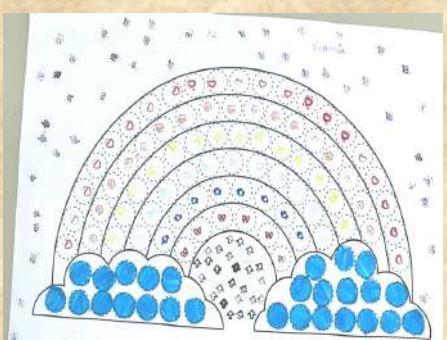

3D CRAFT CHALLENGE SOFT & HARD 'C' SOUNDS

Students participated in a hands-on 3D Craft Challenge to explore the soft 'c' (s-sound) and hard 'c' (k-sound). Using their creativity, they designed 3D crafts and independently wrote words containing both sounds. This activity reinforced phonics skills while allowing students to learn through art and independent effort.

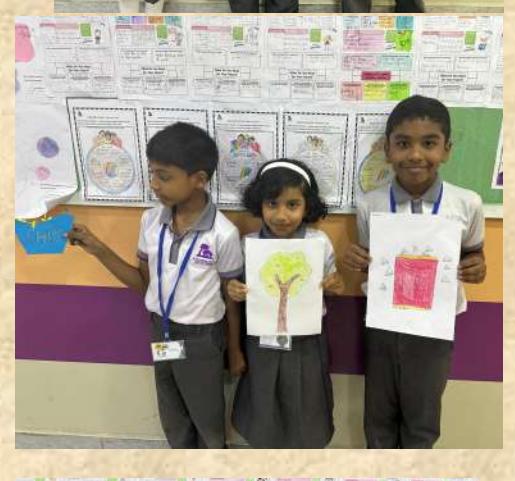

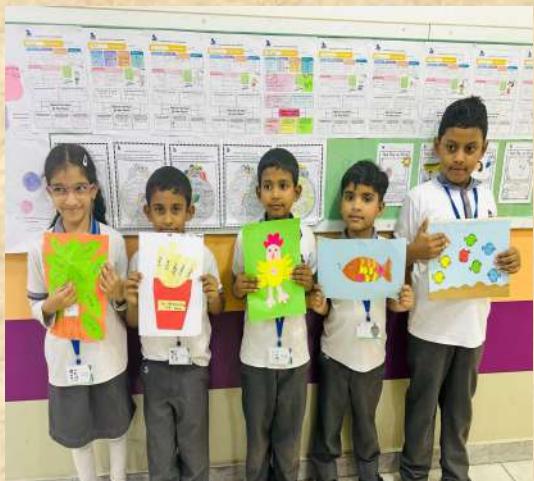

Hats, Bubbles, Splash & Dots Day

Phonics Craftopia

2nd GRADE

In this vibrant and imaginative activity, students will dive into the world of phonics by selecting one of the sounds they've learned — such as sh, ch, bl, or tr — and bringing it to life through a hands-on craft. With glitter, colour, and endless imagination, students will decorate their craft to reflect their individual style, turning phonics practice into a joyful celebration of learning and artistic expression.

Character in Disguise

In this fun and imaginative activity, students bring a favourite object from home and pretend to be that object. They'll introduce themselves, describe what they do, share who they belong to, and tell a creative story from the object's point of view!

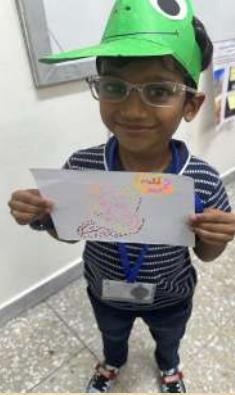

Shape Poetry

In this creative writing activity, students explored the art of shape poetry by composing poems that take the form of the subject they're describing. Whether it was a shining star, a buzzing bee, or a swirling tornado, each poem combined thoughtful words with imaginative shapes—bringing poetry to life visually and expressively!

Dot Art Activity

Hats, Dots & Bubbles Day

Acrostic Name Description

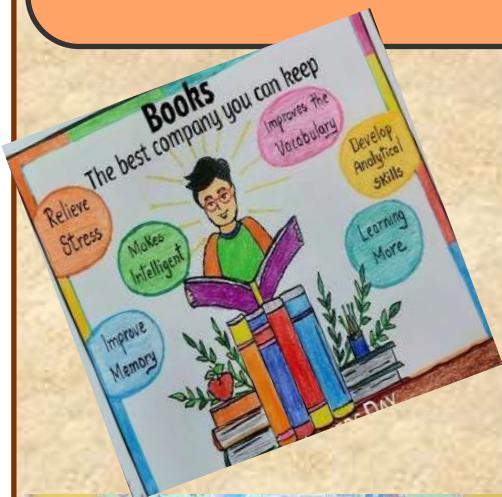

Grade 3 & 4

A fun and creative activity where the students using each letter of their names, described themselves with positive words like Kind, Joyful, and Creative. This activity encouraged self-expression, boosted confidence, and helped students appreciate each other's unique qualities. A wonderful way to celebrate individuality and positivity!

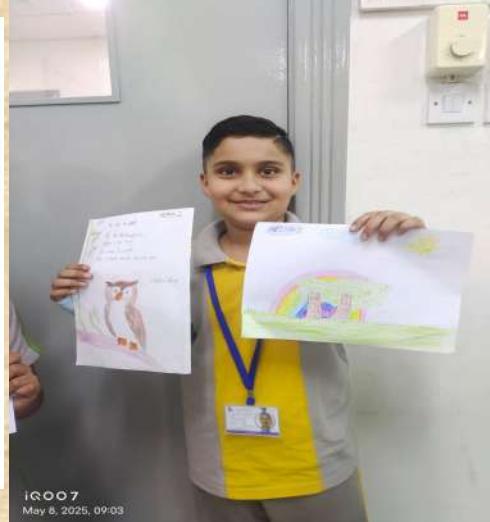

Book Review Competition

Students of Grade 3 and 4A enthusiastically took part in a Book Review Writing Activity. Aimed at building summarizing, analytical, and opinion-forming skills, the activity encouraged students to pick their favorite book and creatively pen down their thoughts using a guided template. It was a delightful opportunity to deepen their love for reading and enhance their writing skills!

Shape Poetry Competition

A fun-filled Shape Poetry Competition wherein the young poets impressed everyone with their creative poems shaped like stars, trees, and animals. It was a wonderful blend of art and poetry!

Advertisement Creation Competition – 4A

The students of Class 4A showcased their creativity and communication skills in an exciting Advertisement Creation Competition. From catchy slogans to colorful posters, each student came up with innovative ideas to promote a variety of products. The activity helped boost their imagination, confidence, and presentation abilities.

Hats, Dots & Bubbles Day—Grade 3

Designing an Advertisement - A Creative Exploration

Grades 4 and 5 enthusiastically participated in a fun and engaging activity titled "Designing an Advertisement." The goal was to promote a product, service, or idea using persuasive language, catchy slogans, and eye-catching visuals.

With sketch pens and colourful paper, students brought their creative ideas to life. From eco-friendly products to imaginary inventions, each ad reflected originality and confidence. The activity helped develop communication, critical thinking, and presentation skills in a fun and imaginative way.

Book Review Corner - A Peek into Our Reading Adventures

Grades 4 and 5 explored the world of stories through a Book Review activity. Each student selected a favourite book — fiction or non-fiction — and penned down their thoughts in the form of a structured review.

They described the plot, shared their opinions on characters, reflected on the themes, and even rated the book with stars! This activity helped improve critical thinking, comprehension, and expression, while also encouraging peer recommendations for new and exciting reads.

Through this activity, our young readers not only developed analytical skills but also discovered the joy of sharing stories with others — because a good book, once read, is meant to be shared!

Creative writing : Recipe for Friendship!

Our creative young chefs from Grades 4 and 5 whipped up something truly heartwarming — their very own "Recipe for Friendship!" Blending the art of writing with the values that make friendships strong, students explored the ingredients that go into building meaningful connections. With kindness, laughter, trust, and respect as their main ingredients, each child created a unique and imaginative recipe, adding their personal touch with thoughtful "serving suggestions." The activity sparked beautiful discussions on empathy, cooperation, and the little things that make friendships last. It was a fun and meaningful way to connect language learning with life skills — and the results were as sweet as they were inspiring!

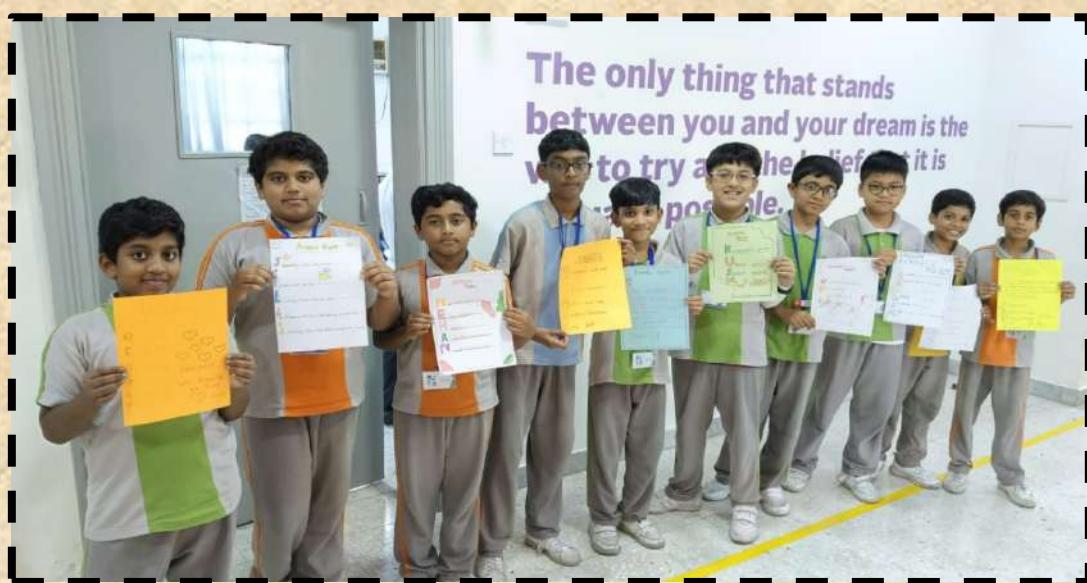

The only thing that stands between you and your dream is the will to try and the belief that it is all possible.

Acrostic Name Poems - A Creative Expression!

Grade 4 and 5 students engaged in a delightful and reflective poetry activity—writing acrostic poems using their own names! This exercise was not just about playing with letters, but about looking within and celebrating who they are. The activity sparked creativity, boosted self-esteem, and allowed students to connect language with identity. The final poems were displayed proudly on classroom boards, turning the hallways into a gallery of confidence, colour, and creativity!

Advertising the brand name for another product– Grade 6

As part of their learning on persuasive writing and communication, Grade 6 students participated in an engaging activity titled "Advertising the Brand Name for Another Product." The objective was to enhance their understanding of branding, persuasive techniques, and audience targeting through a fun and creative experience.

Students were asked to choose a well-known brand and imagine it being used for a completely different product.

They were encouraged to think outside the box, develop a unique slogan, and explain why the brand name would still be effective for the new product.

Happy Reading! – Grade 6

During the reading period, the students of Grade 6 were taken to the library to encourage independent reading and develop a love for books. They explored a variety of genres, selected books of their interest, and enjoyed a calm and focused reading session. The visit aimed to enhance their vocabulary, comprehension skills, and foster a lifelong habit of reading.
